

Memorial Day Weekend Cruise

May 27-29, 2006

How exciting! The 2006 DIYC cruising program begins with a “cruise” to Hamburg Cove for Memorial Day Weekend

There are town moorings ($10, I think) and anchoring. Sunday night we are planning a carry-in supper on “Til... What to Bring? If you last name begins with:

A-I - dessert (or salad)

J-O – hors d’oeuvres (Marcus hopefully will bring chopped liver!)

P-Z – main course

And, also BYOB! We will be supplying paper goods and ice.

Eight years ago we tried for the first time to include non-cruisers to join us at Hamburg since it is on the Connecticut shore. It worked out really well (just ask Kim and Mike Dowie, who are now parents of a beautiful baby boy!) and we plan to do the same thing this year; SO, if you would like to join us for the carry-in supper on Sunday evening, we will have a pick up at the dinghy dock at Hamburg around 4:00 p.m. Please give us a call at home (860) 525-4249 or on our cells at (860) 227-5070 or (860) 391-4252 before Saturday May 27th so we will know how many dinghies to send. (Don't forget to bring you food contribution.) Sunday morning, if there is enough interest and weather permitting, we are planning our Annual (which we haven't done in years) “gunk hole” tour by caravan of dinghies over to Seldon Creek (about 1-1/2 miles) or maybe up to the Town of Hamburg and around there (less ambitious). So make sure your dinghy has enough gas and is in good condition. Saturday evening will be a cocktail party (not dinner). We will let you know on Saturday whose boat it will be on. So, bring an hors d’oeuvre to share and byob. Should be a fun weekend. If you have any questions, or know now that you will meet us by land and need a pick up, please give us a call. Also, if we know you are coming by boat we will try (if possible) to save some extra moorings.
