Environmental Standards Policy

Duck Island Yacht Club, Duck Island Condo Association

I. Overview

The Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) has developed and implemented certain standards affecting yacht clubs. Members of Duck Island Yacht Club and Duck Island Condominium Association (collectively herein referred to as the "organization") shall observe these established policies for ensuring our compliance with its environmental obligations.

It should be understood that all spent material is a waste and therefore may be regulated; with this in mind, management of the waste is a matter of being considerate as to the type of waste and its associated requirements. Significant types of potential waste come from repair and maintenance activity and may include spent materials such as fuel, oil, engine coolant, batteries, battery acid, paint, and solvents. Additionally, materials also having potential for adverse effect on the environment may come from bilges and marine head systems, as well as bottom paint. There are also best management practices for recycling certain types of items such as bottles and cans.

II. Strategy

As an organization without operational services (fuel, maintenance, etc.), and in consideration that the majority of potential issues come from boat maintenance whereby the boats are personal property, the predominant strategy will be the minimization of on-site waste. With this approach, the organization will have minimal potential impact on the environment and reduce regulatory risk. To accomplish this, requirements will be established by policy, periodic communications shall occur, and audits will be utilized to provide feedback for improvement.

III. Policy

- a. Bottles and Cans: Receptacles are to be provided for the collection of bottles and cans. Bottles may be redeemed, or provided with cans for recycling.
- b. Fluorescent Bulbs, Thermostats and Light Fixture Ballasts: Shall be changed-out and disposed of by a contractor permitted in handling and disposal of these wastes.
- c. Bottom painting is prohibited on the organization's property. Included as "bottom-painting" are related activity of sanding, stripping, chemical cleaning and painting.
- d. Cleaning of boat bottoms painted with soft or abrasive paints is not permitted in the slips.
- e. Club Owned and Privately Owned Auxiliary Power Boats: Activities associated with the following items shall be carried out at the owner's responsibility in accordance with this policy. Wastes associated with these activities shall not be stored (even temporarily) or disposed of at the organization's property. The owner's has the obligation to dispose of these in accordance with regulatory requirements, and as "property owners", are encouraged to consider hometown sponsored collection services or commercially available options.
 - i. Engine Oil and/or filter change-out
 - ii. Fuel and/or filter change-out
 - iii. Battery and/or acid change-out
 - iv. Engine coolant change-out
- f. Storage of useable fuel shall be allowed in boats only, and in appropriate tanks or containers.
- g. Storage of batteries is not allowed.
- h. Any questions regarding this policy, including consideration of activities or waste materials not included, shall be directed to the Commodore of Duck Island Yacht Club, and the President of Duck Island Condominium Association.
- i. This policy shall be reviewed on an annual basis for necessary revisions by the Commodore of the Duck Island Yacht Club and the President of the Duck Island Condominium Association.
